Verden May-Auction on May 7

Verden. The Verden May Auction will be held just in time for the start of the outdoor season. 74 riding horses for dressage, show jumping, pleasure riding and eventing will be put up for auction on Saturday, May 7. Foals with brilliant pedigrees will complement the offer in the Niedersachsenhalle.

Everybody looking for a futurity prospect will be well-advised to check the current collection of the Verden May Auction. There will be 74 riding horses offered for sale. Foals born between January 1 and March 31 will be chosen on April 9 and then complement the auction collection.

Don Devino by Deveraux/Stalypso, talented for both disciplines, will be the number one of the auction. The stallion was born in 2013, and he already impressed with scope and super potential during the free jumping test. However, he also presented powerful and elastic movement under the dressage saddle. Carsten Nancken from Loxstedt is his breeder and exhibitor. The number six of the collection, Curtis D, is a special show jumping recommendation: breeder Christine Düstersick from Vlotho-Exter presents the five-year-old Conthargos/Florestan-offspring, a half brother Cedane D by Cornado, most popular jumper and top-priced horse in March last year. "There will be horses for all demands and ambitions. Professional as well as amateur riders of all disciplines will get their money's worth," says Auction Manager Jörg-Wilhelm Wegener.

The riding horses will arrive at the Niedersachsenhalle on April 25, 2016. Following an initial training period to settle in, the first public presentation will be held on Saturday,
