

Order for bidding on the phone

And this is how it's done:

The auction team will gladly accept your request before the auction. The representative of the association will call you during the auction of the concerned horse.

The completed bidding order must be submitted to the auction office, including a copy of your identity card, by 12 noon on the day of the auction. Please send us your bidding order by post, e-mail or fax.

The purchase note will be signed by order and confirmed and signed by you after the auction. The Verden auction team stands by its seriousness for the entire transaction and looks forward to your purchase success.
