Hannoveraner champions crowned in Elmlohe

Elmlohe. The Hannoveraner champions for dressage and show jumping horses were crowned in Elmlohe. The best young dressage horses are Fürst GG, Jupiter BC and Titania K. In the show jumping arena, Dias, Copa Cabana, Quick Lady and Diarello FRH took the lap of honour wearing the white and yellow winner's sash. Only the weather did not match the performances: Hannover's talented horses deserved bright sunshine on the beautiful show grounds.

The seven- and eight-year-old dressage horses kicked off the final competitions on Friday. Titania K by Top Gear/Prestige Pilot (breeder: Willem Klausing GbR, Diepholz) with Leonie Richter as the last starter entered the arena victorious from the preliminary round, confirmed her performance once again and took the title. Alissimo by Asgard's Ibiza/Belissimo M (breeder: Dorothee Heitmüller, Nienburg) and Franziska Haase were awarded the silver ribbon. Royal Black Diamond by Rotspon/Laurentio (breeder: Ralf Zierke, Braunschweig) with Jessica Lynn Thomas took the bronze medal.

One day later, Leonie Richter celebrated her second title at the Hannoveraner Championships, this time in the saddle of the six-year-old Jupiter BC by Jovian/Fürst Romancier (breeder: Gestüt Greim, Bärnau). The expressive dark bay also completed an HLP qualifying test. He won ahead of Donicio by Don Martillo/Benicio (breeder: Horst Rosenblatt, Bochum), who once found a new owner at the Verden Foal Auction. In Elmlohe, he was presented by Melanie Klein. The dressage rider from Schleswig-Holstein took her second ribbon in third place in the saddle of Designer by Da Costa/Don Frederico (breeder: Bernd Hinck, Deinstedt).

A complete horse with charm and elegance: Fürst GG by Fürst Romancier/Sandro Hit (breeder: Gerold Gögele, Bleckede) clearly dominated the field of five-year-old dressage horses with Kira Goerens-Ripphoff. Second place went to Found a Dream, son of For Final/Scolari (breeder: Bernd Eufinger, Brechen) and Jana Marie Thamm. Sinato by Secret/For Romance (breeder: Dr. Christine Feichtinger, Vaduz/LIE) and Thomas Schulze completed the podium in third place.

To the cheers of the crowd, Diarello FRH by Diamant de Semilly/Cascadello (breeder: Stefan Aust, Armstorf) and Tim-Uwe Hoffmann took victory in the seven-year-old show jumpers. The dark bay already has several titles to his name, including two victories in the Hannoveraner Show Jumping Masters and being part of the winning Hannoveraner team at the WBFSH Studbooks Jumping Global Champions Trophy in Valkenswaard/NED. The Carlo/Adlantis As son Carlantis (breeder: Henning Müller-Rulfs, Ritterhude) took the vice-title with Hilmar Meyer. The Comme il faut NRW/Nobre xx daughter Contina (breeder: Heinrich Bremer, Nöpke) finished in bronze with Mynou Diedrichsmeier.

One day later, breeder and owner Stefan Aust from Armstorf had a second reason to celebrate. His Diamant de Semilly/I'm Special de Muze son Dias won the four-year-old class with Nico Tomfohrde in the saddle. The vice-champion was Pokemon by Poker de Mariposa TN/Valentino (breeder: Stall Bokhorst, Schillsdorf), registered in the Rhineland, with Harm Wiebusch. Third place went to Dear Debbie by Diaron/Balou du Rouet (breeder: Gerald Wiese, Ottersberg), with Ole Klintworth.

The highest score among the five-year-olds was achieved by the Comme il faut NRW/Calido daughter Hann.Pr.A. Copa Cabana (breeder: Anneli Brunckhorst, Wohlesbostel) with Finn Brunckhorst. The typey grey mare was not only the winning mare at last year's mare show in Neuenfelde, but was also awarded the 1b Prize at the Herwart von der Decken Show. Mynou Diedrichsmeier won the second ribbon, once again with a horse named Contina. This time it was a Conthargos/Valentino daughter (breeder: Harm Wiebusch, Fredenbeck), which the show jumper had only discovered last October at the Elite Auction in Verden. Nico Tomfohrde also stood at the top for a second time: he came third with his own breed Hann.Pr.A. Skarabea T by Stolzenberg/Qualito.

Like the seven-year-olds, the six-year-olds determined their champions in a jump-off against the clock. Three mares were in the lead. The fastest round was delivered by the Checkter/El Bundy daughter Cheers to life LA (breeder: Lotta Aalto, Bargstedt) with Josch Löhden. The pair were almost four seconds faster than last year's winners, Ginger nut FRH by Glasgow van't Merelsnest/Canstakko (breeder: Ulf Platz, Oldendorf) and Julia Plate, who won the silver ribbon. Third place went to Quick Lady, a daughter of Quickthago VDO/Catoki (breeder: Alfred Bruch, Winsen) with Sebastian Elias. Two years ago, she was part of the Elite Auction in Verden.

The last Hannoveraner Champions 2025 will be determined this coming weekend in Verden. The riding horse championships will then be part of the supporting programme for the World Championships for Young Dressage Horses.
