

Hannover wins at five-year-olds

WBFSH Studbooks Jumping Global Champions Trophy

Valkenswaard. At the premiere of the WBFSH Studbooks Jumping Global Champions Trophy in Valkenswaard/NED, Hannover's five-year-olds won the studbook ranking ahead of Zangersheide and the Anglo European Studbook (AES). With the two fifth places in the competitions of six- and seven-year-olds, Hannover was the most successful studbook from Germany.

Hannover's trio in the five-year-old final included Diarello by Diamant de Semilly/Cascadello (breeder: Stefan Aust, Armstorf) with Tim-Uwe Hoffmann, Constable by Contendro/Diarado (breeder: Ilona Turowska, Sosnowica/POL) with Jaroslaw Skrzyczynski and DiCardo by Diacontinus/Chalet (breeder: Enno Köster, Loxstedt) with James William Passy, who had already impressed in the qualifications with clear rounds.

In the final of the seven-year-olds only one rider delivered a clear round. With the fastest four-fault round, Baloula FRH by Balou du Rouet/Dollar du Murier (breeder: Hans-Heinrich Philipps, Wunstorf) and Dieter Smitz took an excellent third place. In the studbook ranking Hannover came fifth, the KWPN was the winner. Besides Baloula FRH, Valantus by Van Halen Z/Adlantus As (breeder: Henning Müller-Rulfs, Ritterhude) with Amelie Ottens and Comilkora by Comme il faut NRW/Cassin II (breeder: Klaus Brandes, Asendorf) with Jordi Sander represented Hannover's colours in the decisive round.

Hannoveraner Rhythmus

Hannover also finished fifth in the six-year-old class. The best Hannoveraner horse was Diabolo by Don Diarado/Grey Top (breeder: Eduard Voss, Eydelstedt) with Dieter Smitz with the fastest four-fault round in fifth place. The two had won the first qualification with a lead of more than one second. It's Mylord by I'm Special de Muze/Mylord Carthago (breeder: Frank Johannsen, Buxtehude) and Thies Johannsen as well as Lubago by Lord Pezi Junior/Satisfaction (breeder: ZG Luttmann, Klein Heins) and Amelie Ottens completed the team. The classification of the ten studbooks was won by the Belgian BWP.

Eight-year-old Hannoveraner horses did not compete in Valkenswaard.
