

56/2023
Verden, November 18, 2023
BZ

Cornet's Iberia flies to first position

Verden Auction Online in November: Riding horses and youngsters

Verden. Twelve bidders placed 59 bids, making Cornets Iberia the number one in the statistics of the Verden auction in November with a price of 42,000 Euros. The average price of the last riding horse auction of the year in the Niedersachsenhalle was 15,472 Euros.

Cornets Iberia is a horse to compete with straight away. The seven-year-old Cornets Iberio/Lord Sinclair daughter (breeder: Christine Blank, Düsseldorf) has already proven her ability in the 1.30 metre course. This is already the second auction appearance for the bay. Exactly two years ago, her exhibitor Katharina Köhlmoos, Jesteburg, achieved the promising mare in the Niedersachsenhalle. Cornets Iberia will now move into her stall at a renowned show jumping stable in Lower Saxony.

The most expensive dressage horse is making its way to the USA. The charming Mon Amour by Marc Cain/Dancier (breeder and exhibitor: Heinz-Georg Kück, Worpswede), born in 2019 and out of the dam line of Notera, was bought by a regular customer from Washington, D.C., for 28,000 Euros. Head number 1, the also three-year-old De Luxe G by Dante's Junior/Fürstenball (breeder and exhibitor: Falko Gerdes, Hipstedt), cost only 500 Euros less. The compact, talented bay already has placings in tests for young dressage horses to his name. He will find his way into the big dressage arena in Hessen.

There were 15 international bidders at the Online auction. Three auction horses come in French and Spanish ownership and two each in British and US-American.

The lot of the Verden Online Auction in November was completed by 15 stallions born in 2021. The shiny black Totilas/Don Index son Tiamo (breeder and exhibitor: Anke Troff, Leer), who goes back to the foundation mare Willkür, was the most sought-after two-and-a-half-year-old. At 19,000 Euros, the virtual knockdown to Mexico took place. 17,000 Euros had to be paid for Glamourous by Glamourdale/De Niro (breeder and exhibitor: Ulla Katzorke, Essen). Success is pre-programmed: Three half-siblings have reached advanced (S) level in the dressage arena and one half-brother has been licensed. The average price was 11.571 Euros.

From November 30 to December 2, it will be exciting once again in the Niedersachsenhalle. Then the licensing and stallion sales of young jumping stallions will take place. In addition, the Hannoveraner Show Jumping Masters for four to eight-year-olds will be held.

Photo: Cornets Iberia by Cornets Iberio/Lord Sinclair (Photo: Hannoveraner Verband/Beelitz/Gerstenkorn)

Please note that publication of the photo is only free of charge in connection with this press release.