

01/2021
Verden, January 13, 2021
KW

The mix makes the difference

Verden Auction in January

Verden. The Online Auction in January on Saturday, January 23rd, is a lively start to the Verden auction year. The offer is high class. 54 selected riding horses for all requirements are waiting for new owners. The first bids can be placed from January 17th onwards, before the bidding starts six days later at 2 pm. The auction horses can be tried out in Verden from now on after making an appointment by telephone.

It is the mix that makes the difference, and so the collection includes interesting young top athletes for dressage, show jumping and eventing as well as double-disposed youngsters and leisure partners. The start is made by a former Verden auction foal. Already in May 2015, Friedrich Schiller by Finest/Desperados (breeder: Henning Schulze, Tiddische, exhibitor: Aldrie Consultants AB, Sweden) was sold to Sweden. Six years later, the black stallion, already successful in competitions, leads the collection with his extraordinary movement capacity with head number 1. The first talented show jumper is Pokerface by Perigueux/Earl (breeder: Klaus Heinrich Brinkmann, Heeslingen) with the head number 3. With his rider Kilian Kraft, who is only 17 years old, the likeable show jumper owned by Daniel Weinrauch, Cologne, has already achieved placings up to class A. Pokerface's granddam, Singular's Queen, sired the internationally successful licensed stallion Cantolar by Canstakko, who was ridden by the Norwegian Stein Endresen.

It will be possible to try out the horses in compliance with the applicable distance and hygiene regulations. The auction will take place online. The first presentation on

Hannoveraner Rhythmus

Saturday, January 16th, will be broadcast live on the internet as well as the presentation on Wednesday, January 20th, and the free jumping on Friday, January 22nd.

Collection and further information: www.hannoveraner.com and www.verdener-auktion-online.com.