Summer Feeling in Verden

Verden July Auction over two days

Verden. It is the first time that there will be no “mixed sales” at a Verden auction: The 32 show jumping horses of the Verden Auction in July will be put up for auction on Friday, July 13, the 53 dressage horses will show up in the Niedersachsenhalle one day later on Saturday. The two collections will be complemented by a stunning collection of foals. Verden will also host the Lower Saxonian Championships HA.LT on July 13/14.

„Summer Time in Verden“ will be the motto of the Verden Auction in July. The cover of the auction brochure reflects this motto as it shows Scott Brash and the former Verden auction horse Hello Shelby at the Global Champions Tour in Miami Beach/USA.

The number one of the July-collection is a jumper. There will be 31 more jumping athletes put up for auction on Friday as of 06:00 pm. 20 foals with amazing pedigrees will be sold afterwards. The first horse on Saturday, 02:00 pm will be the number 41. 36 dressage foals will then wait for their new owners.

The number 149 of the auction will be Prince Unicorn. The swimming unicorn will be sold for the benefit of Lebenshilfe Verden e.V. bids will start at Euro 20.

The collection of riding horses and foals is published on www.verden-auktion.de, just like all dates of presentations and livestream broadcasts for special presentations. The horses will arrive in Verden on July 2 and can be inspected during daily training as of July 3. The foals will be presented in the morning of the auction day, following the presentation of riding horses. The auctions will start on Friday at 06.00 pm and on Saturday at 02:00 pm. Tickets are available in advance at Euro 10 with www.ticketmaster.de or at the auction office in Verden.
