The auction horses have arrived

Training period of the Verden Auction Online in May begins

Verden. Finally the time has come: the horses of the Verden Auction Online in May have moved into their boxes at the training and sales centre. 73 excellent riding horses are waiting for new owners. Interested parties can watch and try out their desired candidates in their daily work after prior arrangement and in compliance with the official requirements. On Saturday, 30 May, the dream horse can then be bid for from the comfort of your own home from 2.00 pm CET.

Some of the auction horses show their potential for both disciplines and will match both dressage and jumping demands. For these horses training towards a future eventing horse is also possible. The selection of the auction horses has been designed so as to ensure that not only professional riders, but also amateur and leisure riders will find their perfect horse for sports and leisure time activities.

Visiting the training and trying out the horses is only possible after making an appointment by telephone with the customer advisors of the Hannoveraner Verband in order to keep the number of persons on the facility low. The special presentations can be viewed live on the screen. On Friday, May 22nd and Wednesday, May 27th - dressage from 9 am and jumping from 1 pm - the auction horses will be shown in the live stream.

The online auction of the dressage horses will take place on Saturday, May 30th, starting at 2 pm CET. From 6.00 pm CET on it will be the jumping horses' turn. Bidding is already possible from 9 am on Sunday, 24 May. If you have any questions concerning the Verden auction, please do not hesitate to contact the team of the auction office and the customer advisors. Registration and bidding is possible on the website www.verdener-auktion-online.com.

If you do not get a chance to buy a riding horse, you will not have to wait long: From June 3rd to 6th you can become the owner of a quality foal at another Verden online auction. In the online auction series further foal auctions will follow from June 10th to 13th and from July 1st to 4th.
