The grand finale begins Verden auction online on 30 May

Verden. The first bidding duels are already underway, but the grand finale of the Verden Auction Online starts tomorrow. On Saturday, May 30, 46 highly talented dressage and 23 show jumping horses with top class pedigrees are waiting for new owners. From 2.00 p.m. CET the last bids for the dressage horses can be placed. From 6.30 p.m. CET the show jumpers will follow.

The auction horses will enter the "Bid up", the final, on Saturday afternoon with a time delay of three minutes each. Each bid extends the bidding time by another three minutes - until no further bids are received during this period. From the young hopeful for show jumping, dressage or eventing up to the adult sports partner spoiled by success, there is something for everyone at the Verden auction. All auction candidates can be found with complete information, pedigrees, photos and videos online at www.verdener-auktion-online.com.

Please do not hesitate to contact the team of the auction office and the customer consultants for any questions you may have concerning the Verden auction. Registration and bidding is possible on the website www.verdener-auktion-online.com.

Those who were not successful with the riding horses will not have to wait long.: From June 3rd to 6th you can become the owner of a quality foal at another Verden online auction. In the online auction series further foal auctions will follow from June 10th to 13th and from July 1st to 4th.
