Worldwide Hannoveraner Contest First online tournament on 5/6 June

Verden. On June 5th and 6th, Hannoveraner and Rhineland riding horses can compete worldwide in an online tournament. In cooperation with ClipMyHorse.tv and EQUI-LEAGUE, the first official Hannoveraner Contest in dressage at A (novice), L (preliminary) and M (intermediate) level will be held.

"When I heard about the portal, I immediately had the idea that this could be a great platform to offer riders of Hannoveraner and Rhinelanders worldwide a possibility to compare," enthuses Wilken Treu, Managing Director of the Hannoveraner Verband. Committed partner is Volker Wulff, one of the two founders of EQUI-LEAGUE, who has just decided to cooperate with ClipMyHorse.tv.

At the first "Hannoveraner EQUI-LEAGUE Dressage" classes at A- (novice), L- (preliminary) and M- (intermediate) level are announced. Appropriate age groups are allowed, but only Hannoveraner and Rhineland riding horses are allowed. "This event shows what EQUI-LEAGUE can achieve, namely in this case a global exchange of riders who otherwise compete at national level. I find this extremely exciting," said Volker Wulff.

The schedule of the "Hannoveraner EQUI-LEAGUE Dressage" can be viewed at www.equi-league.de. So whoever - wherever in the world - has got a Hannoveraner or Rhineland in the stable or under saddle should quickly register for free at www.equi-league and book the "Hannoveraner EQUI-LEAGUE Dressage".
