Wilken Treu changes to Hannover

Verden. Wilken Treu, the previous breeding and managing director of the Westphalian Stud Book in Münster changes to the Hannoveraner Verband and will take over the position of managing director which has been vacant since May. He will take up the new position on December, 1st, 2019.

Wilken Treu was born in the region of Verden, studied agribusiness at the University in Göttingen and completed his master's degree with a thesis at the Hannoveraner Verband. He then worked as a manager at Gestüt Lewitz before becoming business administration manager of the Saxony-Anhalt State Stud in Prussendorf. For seven years, the 37-year-old has been managing and breeding director of the Westphalian Stud Book.

"Due to its tradition and importance, I see my task at the Hannoveraner Verband as a special challenge. In addition I am pleased to return to the Lower Saxony homeland with my wife and my two children." The chairman Hans-Henning von der Decken is happy about this decision. "I am very glad and happy that we were able to win a young and yet experienced man for this important position with Wilken Treu. I would like to thank the Westfälischer Pferdestammbuch for their unproblematic handling of this matter.
