Foal presentation with spectators Verden Auction Online of Foals

Verden. Next weekend the time has come: The Verden auction curtain will rise for about 100 hand-picked representatives of the 2021 foal vintage. Spectators will be able to get an idea of the top-class collection on the spot. On Saturday, the youngest horses and their dams will present themselves live on stage in the Niedersachenhalle from 12 noon CET. The collection will then be auctioned online in two parts on August 7 and 8, each starting at 6 pm CET.

The auction will start with the head number 1, Benz by Bonds/Spörcken (breeder and exhibitor: Friedrich Wilhelm Gerke, Klötze), whose dam is a former Verden auction foal. The auction will be held online in two parts. Bids have already been submitted since last Sunday. The bidding will start at 6 p.m. CET on 7 and 8 August at www.verdener-auktion-online.com. Each bid extends the Bid Up by another three minutes.

If you want to be there live at the presentation on Saturday, you should secure one of the coveted tickets. Tickets are available while stocks last (Auction Office, Anne Janßen, e-mail: ajanssen@hannoveraner.com).
