

Frontman is in front

Verden auction online of foals and broodmares

Verden. The Verden Auction Online of foals developed into a real summer party. The 104 exquisite foals reached the proud average price of 10,185 Euros. Frontman lives up to his name and with the top price of 48,000 Euros he led the 2020 vintage.

For the first time in a long while, an almost "real" auction atmosphere was created. One day before the auction, the team of the Hannoveraner Verband invited to the Niedersachsenhalle to present the auction foals, taking into account the official requirements due to Corona pandemic. Numerous visitors followed this invitation, and the 2020 vintage presented itself magnificently at this overture. On Saturday and Sunday, the final bids were made in front of the screens at home.

The online auction developed into a real celebration. The foals aroused great interest in Germany and abroad. Frontman by For Romance/Dancier (breeder and exhibitor: Dr. Lena Heidkamp, Rantzau) was the first to dance. After just under 50 bids, 48,000 Euros was sold to a stallion rearer from the Netherlands.

From the best dam line comes the number one in the price scale for foals with a show jumping pedigree. A customer paid 20,000 Euros for the sporty colourful bay Chaccon du Rouet II by Chacoon Blue/Balou du Rouet (breeder and exhibitor: Gerd Janssen, Neuschoo). Exactly one year ago his full brother was already one of the rough diamonds at the foal auction.

"We have shown courage to offer such a large foal collection online and are very happy for our breeders about this success", said Managing Director Wilken Treu. The price structure is quite impressive. 35 foals cost more than 10,000 Euros. International customers secured 29 future hopes. Five of each of them will find a new home in the USA and in Great Britain.

A broodmare enriched the excellent offer: In foal by the Burg-Pokal winner Vitalis, the daughter of Quantensprung/Lauries Crusador xx, Hann.Pr.A. Quilea (breeder: Hans-Jürgen Lietz, Emmendorf, exhibitor: Brigitte Trabertshofer, Bonn) was sold for 12,000 Euros.
