

Take the last chance

The last riding horses of the year will be auctioned off in Verden on November 9

Verden. Anyone who wants to secure a promising talent for 2020 will have their last chance in Verden on Saturday, November 9. 108 youngsters are for sale in the Niedersachsenhalle. The first bid will be accepted punctually at 2 pm. The auction candidates will move into their boxes on October 29. The presentations will be broadcasted live on the internet on Wednesday, November 9, as well as on Friday and Saturday before the auction.

The 108 auction horses descent from 77 different sires. The blood of Fürstenball is particularly often represented. Many mare-show champions and price peaks at Verden Auctions can be traced back to this stallion. Among the jumper sires, the Celle State Stud stallion and best ranked horse of the jumper breeding value estimate, Diacontinus, is represented as sire three times.

Fantastic F makes a fantastic start to the Verden Auction. The Fürst Nymphenburg II son comes from the same breeders house as his father, Zuchthof Fries in Northeim. Already victorious in tests for young riding horses, this stallion is a special offer in the collection. Davida Deluxe is the name of one of the Diacontinus offspring. With the head number nine the grey mare out of a dam by Stakkato shows fast reflexes at the jump. Numerous successful show jumpers up to the advanced level can be found in the dam line of this four-year-old.

The auction horses will move into their boxes at the Niedersachsenhalle on Tuesday after the stallion licensing, on October 26. From Wednesday, October 27, they can be examined in daily training and tried out after consultation with the customer advisors.
