

On to the finish

137th Elite-Auction of Hannoveraner Verbandes

Verden. The final spurt of the 137th Elite Auction begins. The 43 dressage and 24 show jumping horses come to the finishing straight. After the ten-day training period in the training and sales centre of the Hannoveraner Verband, the "bid up" via internet will start on Saturday at 2 p.m. CET.

The highly interesting collection is complemented by 21 foals as well as 24 two and a half year old sport stallions. The first bidding duels are already underway, but the grand finale of the Verden Auction Online starts tomorrow. On Saturday, October 10th, the last bids for the personal favourite can be submitted. After the riding horses the stallion and then the foals will find a new owner.

From the young hopefuls for show jumping, dressage and eventing to the adult and successful sports partner, there is something for everyone at the Verden auction. All auction candidates can be found with complete information, pedigrees, photos and videos online at www.verdener-auktion-online.com.

The team of the auction office and the customer advisors are available for any questions concerning the Verden auction. Registration and bidding is possible on the website www.verdener-auktion-online.com.
