The new auction year can begin

Verden auction on 25 January

Verden. On January 25th, there will be the opportunity to secure quality riding horses for the future at the Verden auction for the first time in 2020. A total of 77 dressage and jumping talents as well as leisure partners will then be available for customers from all over the world to choose from in the Niedersachsenhalle. The auction starts at 2 p.m. CET.

The front page of the auction brochure will be decorated by Casta Lee FRH by Cas-sus/Acorado with her rider Tim-Uwe Hoffmann. The mare, born in Wittingen at the barn of Wilhelm Koch, was sold at the Verden Spring Elite Auction in April 2011 and jumps from success to success in Germany ever since.

With head number one, one of five decendants of the privately owned stallion Finest from the collection will be the first auction horse to enter the auction hall in the new year: The black gelding Freetown (breeder: Günter Bleis, Beverstedt), born in 2016, is shown by Klaus Michaelis from Basdahl and impressed the selection committee with his type and outstanding basic gaits. Especially the collection of show jumping horses already offers successful Hanoverian hopes for success in sport: head number three, Darunee by Dia-continus/Comte, has already won novice and elementary classes for young show jumpers. This Hannoveraner premium candidate bred by Ingo König, Großenwörden, and exhibited by Dagmar Scharffetter, Bremen, has won eight ribbons in nine competitions in the 2019 season.

The collection shows a total of 53 dressage and 24 show jumping horses. Some candidates are also recommended as leisure partners, hunters or for eventers. The delivery of the riding horses will take place on Monday, January 13. From January 14th to 24th, the auction horses can be inspected during daily training and at the special presentati-
